FOREWORD

We, the annual staff of 1959, proudly present the ninth edition of the Castletonian. Swiftly tomorrow is today, and today is yesterday. As we add new dimensions in our life, and time has dulled our memory of familiar faces, may they again be recalled by turning the pages of this yearbook.

In order to help you remember and cherish these MEMORIES, we would like to leave with you the Castletonian. May you have many hours of pleasure turning through its leaves.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was September of 1955, that we as eager Freshmen set foot in the halls of Castlewood High School to begin the first year of high school. Sue Couch was elected as president to lead us through a momentous year.

As Sophomores, we became better adjusted and assumed our roles as "certified citizens" of Castlewood High School. McArthur Carty was our president. As we joined the various clubs, we began to feel that we were more a part of high school life.

In the fall of 1957, our junior year, we really began to feel our importance and to participate in activities that will be a major part of our memories. We chose Eva Price as our president. How proud we were when we donned our class rings! We sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom with "Shangri-La" as the theme. This is one of our memories that will linger on.

And we are now Seniors. As we begin our last year, Mary Ruth Sproles is our class president. We have played hard and cheered loud to lead our team on to victory in both football and basketball. Mildred Johnson reigned as queen to our Homecoming.

With the coming of spring, ordering our invitations, calling cards, and measuring for caps and gowns, we have become aware of the sorrow of leaving. Now we realize our years at C.H.S. have been memorable ones. But before we leave, we want to express our many thanks and deep appreciation to our teachers who have worked so patiently to help us reach our destination. Our happy and sad moments here at Castlewood High School will be reflected in future years through our MEMORIES of 1958-59.

JOYCE JESSEE

SCA President

The 1958-59 Student Cooperative Association of Castlewood High School worked with the Parent-Teachers Association to secure a name-plate for the elementary and high school buildings for its main project. They sponsored Christmas baskets for needy families.

Three members of the executive committee attended the SCA State Convention held at Radford, Va. The officers also attended the SCA District Convention held at Rocky Gap, Va. A member of the executive committee attended SCA Workshop during the summer of 1958 at Radford, Va. The newly elected officers for 1959-60 attended the state convention at Harrisonburg, Va.

The SCA has held assembly programs in the gymnasium, patrolled the lunch lines, sponsored Religious Emphasis Week, Career Day, and a talent show.

The SCA council purchased SCA pins.

FHA Girls Decorate Home Economics Suite, Buy China, Linens

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America secured pins, guards, and certificates. The club sponsored a "Cider Cellar" in the Halloween Carnival. They purchased china, new table linens, and put cornice boards over the windows in three rooms of the home economics department. They redecorated the bedroom with new curtains, bed spread, and dressing table skirt.

They are anticipating a Spring Fashion Show and a Valentine Tea.

The second football season proved to be very successful in the short history of football at Castlewood High School. The Blue Devils had a seven-game schedule, winning three and losing four. However, this is not a true picture of the exciting games and hard playing our boys displayed.

Small, but making up in fight what they lacked in size, the Little Blue Devils' football team finished a fine season by winning three games and losing one. The entire squad is made up of eighth graders, freshmen, and sophomores. They are a separate unit from the varsity and this will give the younger boys a chance to gain experience before playing varsity ball.

Money was donated by the Castlewood Lions Club and the school to purchase our uniforms. Please accept our many thanks.

CHEERLEADERS FOR BASKETBALL

CHEERLEADERS FOR FOOTBALL

Jackie Salyer, Anna Leigh Gibson, head cheerleader; Linda Chafin, Ann Hulsey, Barbara Axsom, Cheryl Smith, Jolene Wood, Donald Meade.

"Let's yell, Students!" This was the cry of the cheerleaders. These girls, with the support of Donald Meade, have done a good job of increasing the school spirit at football games, basketball games, and pep rallies.

Our games would lack much of the color and excitement without the yells and spirit-to-win of our cheerleaders.

Castlewood Features First Homecoming

Our first Homecoming during football season was one of the highlights of our school year. The squad nominated the following candidates for queen: Clara Sue Blair, Mildred Johnson, Anna Leigh Gibson, Norma Caudill, and Jean Garrett. The winner was kept a secret until the night of the game. Mildred Johnson was crowned queen.

The Blue Devils played well and hard in their Homecoming game, but they lost to Jonesville.

The night was climaxed with a dance in the Castlewood gym.

Mildred Johnson is the queen of the homecoming.

Garland Chafin crowns Mildred Johnson queen of the football Homecoming. The attendants are Jean Garrett, Clara Sue Blair, Anna Gibson, and Norma Caudill. Lawrence Worley is co-captain of the team.

The queen, Mildred Johnson, sits between Garland Chafin, captain, and Lawrence Worley, co-captain.

We wish to express our many thanks to our advertisers for their help in making the Castletonian successful financially. And with this fact in mind, we ask our students to give their patronage at every opportunity possible. They have helped us; now we shall help them.

Friendship and contacts formed with the business world will result in tomorrow's understanding and cooperation.
